Boost sales.

Get your business in pole position by sponsoring ECTA Racing!

Get your business where the attention is

ecta racing

People's attention spans are short...they mute or fast forward through TV commercials, and use ad-blockers online.

But we can help you to cut through it all and get to where the real action is. Motorcycle racing is a fast-paced and obsessively-followed sport with an audience of over 100 million worldwide.

Partner with us and you'll not only get your business out there, you'll catapult your company into the media spotlight, attracting attention and boosting sales.

Why ECTA Racing?

ecta racing

We're a Stockport-based racing team on the up.

We've recently joined forces with next generation road racer Mike Norbury who has been acclaimed by the great and good of the sport as 'One to watch!'

We are competing in the SuperSport, SuperStock, and SuperBike categories at race meetings up and down the country.

This means there are lots of chances of your brand being seen by race goers, armchair fans and all the related media that covers this sport that is gaining followers and interest all of the time.

Mike 'Strawberry' Norbury

ecta racing

Established amongst the fastest riders in England's only pure road racing circuit, Mike is not only the star of the ECTA team, but a rising star of the entire sport.
